American Youth Soccer Organization

Coaches, your participation during this event is very important. The Area 6U Regions and staff members sponsor these annual events at no additional cost to our parents and players.

The Tournament and Jamboree events have been designed to provide an additional opportunity for a great soccer experience in a fun and safe environment for our children.

We sincerely hope you will register your team and participate in the age specific Jamboree or Tournament!

Dennis Hanson
Area 6U Director

General

Play will be governed by FIFA Laws of the Game; AYSO National Rules and Regulations; Area 6U Interregional Guidelines and specific Tournament Rules.

The Area 6U tournament/jamboree is considered one tournament scheduled over several weeks. Therefore any individual player may play in only one division.

Team and Player Eligibility

Only regular season AYSO teams created during fall or spring of the current season are eligible for this tournament. Combined, elite, or select teams are not permitted. NO GUEST PLAYERS.

All players must be registered in an AYSO region on or before April 1 in order to be eligible for this tournament. Players not registered by April 1 will not be allowed to participate in this tournament.

Only players listed on the team's regular season roster, approved by the Regional Commissioner and the Area 6U Tournament Committee will be eligible to play in the tournament. If an ineligible player plays for a team in any part of a tournament game, the team will be disqualified from the tournament, and all games will be deemed forfeited.

Coaches Training

All coaches should have taken the AYSO Age Specific training. Coaches and assistant coaches must take the AYSO Safe Haven course. Coaches must also have medical release forms for all of their players at all games and provide same if asked to do so by the referee for any game or by a tournament committee member for any game.

Conduct of Players, Coaches, and Spectators

Good sportsmanship and clean competition shall be encouraged by coaches. Coaches, Parents, and Players shall conduct themselves in a manner becoming a member of the American Youth Soccer Organization. Coaches are responsible for controlling the conduct and sideline behavior of the players, parents and assistant coaches at the tournament. There is to be no coaching from the spectators.

Substitutions and Game Times

Substitutions will be made only per AYSO National Rules and Regulations.

U10 players may only play goalkeeper for ½ of a match.

Game times will be:

- 10 minute halves for Under 5/6
- 12 minute halves for Under 8
- 15 minute halves for Under 10

Weather

In case of inclement weather or unplayable field conditions, the Tournament Committee may take any of the following actions: Delay play for a period of time, reduce game times to catch up the schedule, reschedule games, cancel or reschedule the tournament. Awards may not be awarded if play is not completed in any age group. Team deposits will be returned if event gets cancelled.

Team Volunteer

All teams which enter the tournament or jamboree must provide one adult volunteer to assist with the event. AYSO is an all-volunteer organization and will need assistance in the operation of events.

U5/6,U-8 and U-10 Jamboree

Teams will remain together for this event. The AYSO tournament staff will balance playing pools to ensure a fun time for all. Each registered team will have a minimum of a 2-3 game playing schedule.

Fees

There will be no additional registration fees associated with the Tournament / Jamboree. A $50.00 refundable deposit is required at the time of registration.

The team deposit will be refunded to each individual coach / team when team checks in before their first match on game day.
